2. The French are arriving at the conclusion previously suggested by [REDACTED] 25X1X
[REDACTED] that the French military positions along the frontier are untenable.* The French position in the delta area could normally be held, but under present circumstances it is completely open to undermining from behind the lines.

4. Although strict censorship is imposed by the French in this area, the local people are aware of what is taking place. French authorities are resentful of the slowness of American aid.
